

Barcelona, February 2019

Dear clients,

Since May 25th, 2016 the Regulation (EU) 2016/679 on General Data Protection (hereinafter, "GDPR") is in force, and has been fully applicable as of May 25th, 2018. Additionally, the much-awaited Spanish Organic Law 3/2019, of December 5th, of Personal Data Protection and digital rights warranty has entered into force on December 7th, 2018.

At Martínez Comín we have adapted to fully comply with the requirements of the current regulations concerning data protection and to adjust our services to this legal framework. To this end, and to fulfil our duty of information, we would like to inform you that, among other modifications:

We have adapted our system of collecting personal data to the aforementioned regulations, as well as our company documentation and our data processing systems. The processing of personal data carried out by Martínez Comín is necessary in order to properly execute the contractual relationship that binds us together, as well as to be able to manage your requests and queries and to keep you updated on the news and current events related to our company by sending you our Newsletters.

The personal data included in our data processing systems are processed according to the purposes described above, in a lawful, fair and transparent way, and it will only be kept as long as it is necessary for the purposes for which it has been collected. However, it could be kept beyond this period, if required by a legal provision or by a public authority.

Besides, we inform you that, when necessary to the performance of our services or to fulfil our legal obligations, your data may be communicated to other entities of Martínez Comín Group (this is, Gabinete Martínez Comín, S.A., Estudio Laboralista MCT S.L., Strategy & Development S.L. and Martínez Comín Auditores S.L.), as well as to our service providers, settled in the EU. In this case, we will ensure that the entities receiving your data comply with the requirements of the regulations in force and that they have adopted, for this purpose, the appropriate security means.

Finally, your rights as data subjects have been extended to the following ones: right of access, rectification, to restriction of processing, to erasure, to data portability, to object, to revoke your consent, and to object an automated individual decision-making process. Likewise, the data subjects can file a claim before the AEPD whenever they consider that their rights have been violated within the framework of our data processing. Your rights may be exercised free of charge, by contacting us at the following postal address: Gabinete Martínez Comín, S.A. in Barcelona, c/ Aribau, 191-193, 1^º-2^ª (08021), or at the following email address: datos@martinezcomin.com.
